

Every MEMBER Counts: Celebrating NC DKG

Meeting and Workshop Information

9:45 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.	The Fall Board meeting is open to all registrants. The morning session includes the President's welcome, NC DKG business items and reports, vignettes highlighting member opportunities, and recognition of the 2020 NC DKG Star of the Southeast.
12:00 p.m. to 12:30 p.m.	Lunch (on your own) with a video invitation to Asheville for the 2021 convention and media showcases from the 2020 virtual convention presentations.
12:30 p.m. to 1:15 p.m.	Workshops - Session I All workshop sessions will be recorded and posted on the NC DKG website under "Meeting Events" so that they could be used for chapter meetings.
Nurturing Members with Handmade Cards Pre-recorded	Dee Snyder & Carol Bostian	Discover some ideas for inexpensive, easy-to-make, handmade cards. Express yourself and support your DKG sisters, friends, and family with your original creations.
Growing in Fellowship as We Share Our Stories Live	Julia Ebel	In our DKG chapters, as in any group, we work most effectively when we know each other. Julia Taylor Ebel, North Carolina author, will lead a discussion on ways we can keep and share the stories of our heritage and those who shape our lives. You are invited to hear and share stories of strong women, role models, and empowerment.
W is for Well-Defined Programs Live	Susie Miller	This presentation will share ideas and resources for planning well-defined programs during chapter meetings.
Identifying Biased and "Fake" News Live	Danielle Parker & Michelle Benigno	We have all heard the term "fake news." We often find it on social media and the internet. But, biased content in resources can be difficult to spot, especially for students. In this session, participants will learn tools for evaluating resources for bias in content and will practice using these tools as well as learn how to apply them in the classroom.
1:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.	Workshops - Session II
Planning During a Pandemic: Keeping Your Chapter Engaged Live	Dr. Michelle Tuck Thomas	Participants will utilize their chapter's strategic plan to revamp programs and goals to meet restrictions during COVID-19. Participants should have a copy of their strategic plan and be prepared to engage virtually to generate a list of ideas that will be shared with NC DKG chapters.
Bitmoji Classrooms Pre-recorded	Amy White	Bitmoji classrooms are a creative way to present information to students in a different way than the typical meeting format. Bitmoji is a way to add emotion and creativity to a boring virtual room.
Showcasing the Categories of the DKG Fine Arts Gallery Pre-recorded	Tracy Hagan	The categories of the Fine Arts Gallery will be explained.
Adding to the Melting Pot: Immigrants in North Carolina Live	Cindy Lockerman	This will be a presentation on the immigrant experience of current immigrant students and their families in North Carolina. Participants will discuss how Delta Kappa Gamma members can help to facilitate success for these students in American schools and the greater society.
2:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.	The virtual event will end with announcements by NC DKG President Dr. Teresa Cowan and closing remarks by DKG President Becky Sadowski.
