If you arrive before the host has started it, you will see this message. Otherwise, you will be in the “waiting room” waiting to be admitted. While you wait, you can test your audio, grab your headphones (we HIGHLY recommend you use headphones to cut out echoes in the audio).

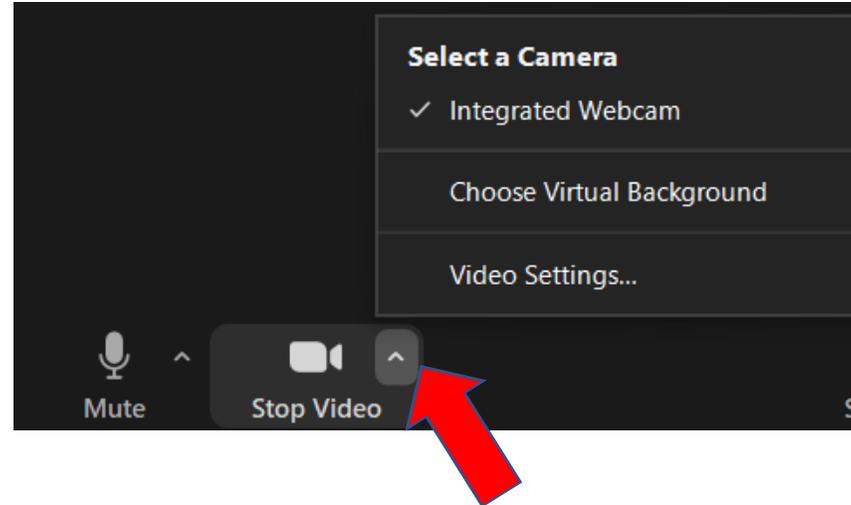

Once you're in the meeting, your controls should look something like this. They may be at the bottom or the top of your screen, depending on the device you're using.

You will be muted at the beginning so we don't have too many people talking at once. When you want to speak, you can unmute yourself by clicking on the microphone button. You mute yourself by clicking on the button again. Start your video on your phone or webcam by clicking on the camera. If you would like a virtual background (the roses image was sent to you in the email – just download the image and upload it in the “choose virtual background” menu on the video button.

If you don't have a microphone or are somewhere where you can't speak over the microphone, you can type your responses in the chat box. Just click on “chat” and a side bar will open where you can type.

If you would like to applaud something or give a thumbs up to something you saw or heard, click on the reactions button and make your selection. The emoticon will appear on your photo.

If you have never used Zoom before, you may want to check out these tutorials on how to use it on your device (iPhone, iPad, etc.). Link for tutorials: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/206618765-Zoom-Video-Tutorials>
